

Rescheduled U.S. Court of Federal Claims' Annual Judicial Conference to Take Place on February 25, 2014

Originally scheduled for October 17, 2013, the 26th Annual Judicial Conference of the Court of Federal Claims was postponed due to the partial Government shutdown, and has now been rescheduled for Tuesday, February 25, 2014 starting at 1:00 p.m. This Judicial Conference will take place at the National Courts Building. The agenda is here.

The program at the Court will be followed by a reception at the National Museum of Women in the Arts, commencing at 5:30 p.m. Select galleries will be open for viewing by attendees. This special reception is sponsored by area law firms, including Marzulla Law, LLC.

Early registration rates are available through February 10, 2014. To register, click here.