Definition of “Eligible U.S. Institution”: As used in this chart, in accordance with SEC no-action letters, the term “Eligible U.S. Institution” means, in general, a U.S. Person that (i) is a “qualified institutional buyer” as defined in Rule 144A(a)(1) under the Securities Act of 1933, and (ii) has had prior actual experience in trading U.S. listed options contracts. For information regarding working definitions of “U.S. Person” as that term is used in this chart, please contact Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP.

PLEASE NOTE that this chart covers those products and exchanges that are likely to be of greatest interest to market participants in the United States. It is not, therefore, intended to be exhaustive, and is presented without any representation or warranty as to its accuracy, completeness or timeliness. Transmission or receipt of this information does not create an attorney-client relationship with Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP, and the information herein should not be used or relied upon in regard to any particular facts or circumstances without first consulting a lawyer. - ¹ Indicates that the SEC also has approved certain options based on Australian equity securities that are now or in the future may be listed on ASX.
- ² The CFTC No-Action Letter also applies to BM&F Bovespa’s “Ibovespa Rollover” and “Forward Points on the Ibovespa” transactions.
- ³ Indicates that the index is included in the CFTC’s and SEC’s joint order dated May 31, 2002 extending the exclusion of such index from the definition of “narrow-based security index” under the Commodity Exchange Act and Securities Exchange Act of 1934 beyond its expiration date of July 11, 2002 (the “Joint Order”). Foreign futures contracts or options on futures contracts on “narrow-based securities indexes” may not be offered or sold to U.S. Persons without the CFTC and SEC first developing joint regulations, which has not yet been done. Accordingly, the Joint Order effectively allows the stock index futures contracts and options on futures contracts that are based on the security indexes included in the Joint Order, which were granted no-action relief by the CFTC prior to the enactment of the Commodity Futures Modernization Act (“CFMA”) on December 21, 2000, to continue to be offered and sold to U.S. Persons after July 11, 2002, the date that the exclusion set forth in the CFMA was to expire.
- ⁴ Indicates that the SEC also has approved all options on individual equity securities that are now or that in the future may be listed on the referenced exchange.
- ⁵ Indicates that the SEC also has approved all options on individual German, Swiss, Finnish, Dutch, Italian, and French-issued equities that are now or that in the future may be listed on the Eurex exchange. Equities issued in any other country that are listed on the Eurex exchange have not been approved at this time.
- ⁶ Eurex offers a KOSPI product that Eurex describes as a daily futures contract that expires every night, with any net open positions at the end of trading resulting in the establishment of a corresponding position in the Korean Exchange’s KOSPI 200 Options (with strike prices, expiries, put/call and premiums) at the start of the next trading session on the Korean Exchange.
- ⁷ Pursuant to Eurex Circular 281/11, the Dow Jones STOXX 600 Personal & Household Goods will no longer be tradable on Eurex trading terminals in the U.S. after the close of business on February 29, 2012. The previously-issued no-action letter approving such product for sale to U.S. Persons (February 6, 2008 CFTC No-Action Letter issued to EUREX) has not been withdrawn.
- ⁸ Pursuant to Eurex Circular 260/11, the Dow Jones Euro STOXX Banking Sector is no longer tradable on Eurex trading terminals in the U.S. The previously-issued no-action letter approving such product for sale to U.S. Persons (April 2, 2002 CFTC No-Action Letter issued to EUREX) has not been withdrawn.
- ⁹ Additional restrictions apply to the trading of these products by U.S. persons.
- ¹⁰ No-action letter withdrawn at the request of the Turquoise Exchange, to which the London Stock Exchange transferred the EDX London exchange. The Turquoise Exchange made the request in a letter dated July 29, 2011.
- ¹¹ Indicates that the SEC also has approved all options on individual Swedish, Norwegian, and Danish-issued equities that are now or that in the future may be listed on the EDX London exchange. Equities issued in any other country that are listed on the EDX London exchange have not been approved at this time. Please note that the EDX London exchange has been acquired by the Turquoise Exchange.
