The above named individual (s) which will be referred to as “client” and Casiano Investigations Inc., have entered into a contract for private investigative services. This contract is dated _____.

Casiano Investigations Inc., agrees to furnish client with services requested, _____ . Any information received will be treated as “for your eyes only” (client), unless otherwise directed by client. Casiano Investigations Inc, will conduct services according to what is agreed upon with client.

Casiano Investigations Inc., will charge the client a rate of _____ an hour for investigative services. A retainer of $500.00 or what is agreed upon between Casiano Investigations Inc., and client will be paid before services are started. In the event the cost of the investigation is above the retainer, Casiano Investigations Inc., has the right to request the greater of the two before services are started. Client agrees that fees paid to Casiano Investigations Inc., are not based on the success of the investigation or information gathered.

In the event that other services are required by client besides the ones mentioned on the information form, Casiano Investigations Inc., will amend prior contract to contain new investigation and issue an amended one to client. In the event that credit is extended to client for further investigative services, client agrees to pay in full prior to receiving any information gathered by investigation. If client fails to pay Casiano Investigations Inc., for services rendered, client agrees to pay all collection cost and any legal fees incurred by Casiano Investigations Inc.

Casiano Investigations Inc., at any time can terminate contract if it receives information that investigation is for other than legal purpose. If that is the case no money will be refunded.
