

Bar room fight – felony?

By Jeremy Geigle

Attorney at Law

A bar room fight that resulted in a broken nose can be charged as an aggravated assault instead of a misdemeanor assault or disorderly conduct. Any time a deadly weapon or dangerous instrument, like a bat, chair, bottle etc., is introduced into a fight there is an increased risk that felony aggravated assault will be charged because of the instrument used and/or the serious physical injury caused in the fight. When charged with any kind of assault, a trusted criminal defense lawyer can help.
