

Attorney General Eric Holder Speaks at the NOBLE Annual Conference

(USDOJ: Justice News)

Submitted at 2:23 PM July 24, 2012

"As a result of your leadership, especially in recent years, NOBLE has made great strides in expanding its reach – and rallying new allies, supporters, and partners to the cause of ensuring equity, accountability, and fairness in the administration of justice – for communities both large and small – across the country," said Attorney General Holder.

Acting Associate Attorney General Tony West Speaks at the National Forum on Youth Violence Prevention Boston Site Visit

(USDOJ: Justice News)

Submitted at 9:48 AM July 24, 2012

"Attorney General Holder often says that fighting violence in our cities and building a fair and effective justice system – a system that keeps citizens safe and maintains its legitimacy in the eyes of everyone it serves – has never been more difficult, nor more urgent, than right now," said Acting Associate Attorney General West.

Justice Department Signs Agreements in Texas and Georgia to Ensure Civic Access for People with Disabilities

(USDOJ: Justice News)

Submitted at 12:45 PM July 24, 2012

The Justice Department today announced agreements with Wills Point, Texas, and Randolph County, Ga., to improve access to all aspects of civic life for individuals with disabilities

U.S. v. Woo Jin Yang aka Eugene Yang

(Antitrust Division: Criminal Case Filings)

Submitted at 10:00 AM July 24, 2012

Document filed on May 8, 2012

- Plea Agreement

Acting Director of the Office on Violence Against Women Bea Hanson Speaks at the National Forum on Youth Violence Prevention Boston Site Visit

(USDOJ: Justice News)

Submitted at 10:08 AM July 24, 2012

"As we work to help keep our children safe, we cannot view youth violence and violence against women as separate and distinct, but, instead, as intertwined. To realize our vision for safe and healthy communities, we must start with safe and healthy homes," said Acting Director Hanson.

U.S. Customs and Border Protection Officer Pleads Guilty in Miami to Civil Rights Violations for Sexual Assault of Three Women

(USDOJ: Justice News)

Submitted at 4:30 PM July 24, 2012

U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Officer Paulo Morales, 47, of Miami, pleaded guilty today in U.S. District Court in Miami to three civil rights offenses for sexually groping three women in his custody.

Missouri Man Sentenced to 42 Months in Prison for Vandalism and Arson of Biracial Man's Home

(USDOJ: Justice News)

Submitted at 11:49 AM July 24, 2012

Charles Wilhelm, 23, of Independence, was sentenced in the Western District of Missouri by U.S. District Judge Dean Whipple.

Former North Carolina Builder Arrested and Charged with Tax Obstruction and Conversion of Government Property

(USDOJ: Justice News)

Submitted at 4:12 PM July 24, 2012

William B. Clayton, a residential builder formerly of Corolla, N.C., was arrested yesterday on charges of obstructing the tax laws and converting government property.

Texas Return Preparer Sentenced to Jail for Preparing False Tax Returns

(USDOJ: Justice News)

Submitted at 4:26 PM July 24, 2012

Eddy L. Lovely, a tax return preparer from Tomball, Texas, was sentenced today to 57 months in federal prison.