Two separate events are highlighted this week in our continuing coverage of high tech meetings and conferences in the Silicon Valley and San Francisco areas.

First, the Silicon Valley Conference 2011 takes place on October 4-5 at the Santa Clara Convention Center. Events include the World Developer Challenger and World Start-Up Challenge, a well as the Silicon Valley Awards Ceremony.

For more details on this event go here.

A few days later, the Silicon Valley Code Camp takes place on the weekend of October 8-9, 2011 at Foothill College in Los Altos Hills. Code Camp is a free community event where developers learn from fellow developers and includes informal talks and presentations.

Our firm's mission: To provide exceptional legal representation at a reasonable cost.

The best way to deal with a legal problem is to take it on proactively. That is why our attorneys focus on providing preventative legal services to our business and individual clients, in both high technology and traditional industries. We work hard to devise specific strategies for our clients that minimize the risk of disputes and litigation. But when disputes arise, we are ready to zealously protect our clients' rights in courts and arbitration forums.

Because our lawyers have a broad range of in-depth experience, our firm can provide clients with particular legal advice in many practice areas. We develop a strong professional relationship with our clients, and we promptly answer client inquiries with personalized attention. We appreciate our clients' need to obtain advice from an attorney who truly understands their own unique situations and legal needs.
