Three people have been injured in a two-vehicle collision in Garden Grove, according to a news report. Garden Grove police said that the driver of a Suzuki Aerio was traveling west on Orangewood Avenue when he ran a red light at West Street and collided with a Mitsubishi Lancer traveling north on West St. The impact of the crash caused the Lancer to overturn, injuring a man and a woman inside the vehicle. The victims were taken to UCI Medical Center for treatment. A young boy who was a passenger in the Lancer was not physically injured, but was described as "traumatized" by the collision and accompanied the adult victims to the hospital.

A female passenger in the Suzuki was also taken to a nearby hospital for treatment of injuries.
