Headline: Welcome to the Weinstein Law Firm

Greetings from the trial attorneys at the Weinstein Law Firm. Our firm is based in Coral Springs, Florida, and has proudly served clients in Broward County and throughout the state for more than a decade.

As an attorney, you will get questions from your clients regarding legal matters outside your areas of practice, including inquiries pertaining to complex personal injury cases involving auto accidents, defective products, premises liability or insurance coverage issues. In these instances, you want to be able to help your clients but won't refer them to just anyone. And, while you may have a personal injury firm that you work with, I wanted to introduce you to our firm and tell you what makes us different.

As experienced trial attorneys, we understand that gathering the evidence to achieve that strong verdict or settlement requires thorough investigative techniques and strategic use of skilled experts. We pride ourselves on our ability to prepare a case, taking into account not only current and past damages, but conclusively establishing future damages and maximizing available insurance coverage.

We've litigated hundreds of cases. We understand how to successfully prepare a case, and we have built the reputation as a firm that will go to trial and is formidable in the courtroom.

Most importantly, we understand that you won't send your clients to just anyone – we don't either. If we do work together, we will treat your clients like we treat our clients - with respect and dignity.

To get to know us further, please visit our website: www.weinstein-law.com. If you have a potential case you'd like to review, please call us at (954) 757-7500. We always are happy to meet for lunch with our compliments and to discuss your needs and our capabilities. We pay referral fees in accordance with regulations from The Florida Bar.
