Re: Supplemental Briefing -- A-96-06 State v. Chun, et al. (Docket No. 58,879)

The Supreme Court has instructed me to inform you that it seeks supplemental briefing on the admissibility of the foundational documents set forth at pages 244-245 of Judge King's initial Findings and Conclusions, which were filed on February 13, 2007. Your arguments are to be made in the context of Crawford v. Washington, 541 U.S. 36, 124 S.Ct. 1354, 158 L.Ed.2d 177 (2004).

The parties are to serve their supplemental brief and file an original and nine copies with the Court contemporaneously and in no event later than 12:00 p.m., Friday, March 7, 2008. Amici curiae New Jersey State Bar Association and Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers also may submit briefs on the same schedule.

The supplemental briefs shall be in the form of a letter not to exceed ten pages. Defendants are encouraged to file a consolidated brief, which may not exceed twenty pages. Defendants who join in a consolidated brief are precluded from filing a separate brief.

The filing date is peremptory. Untimely briefs will not be considered. The Court appreciates your ongoing cooperation and assistance.

/s/ Stephen W. Townsend
