

Do You Know the Real Value of Your Estate in Maryland?

By: Hyatt and Weber

<http://hyattweberestateplanning.com/>

Your Estate is Likely Worth More than You Realize

Whether or not your estate is liquid, it may be more valuable than you realize. For instance, life insurance proceeds may add significant benefit to your estate. It is critical to know that actual value of your estate before you making strategic estate planning decisions involving trusts and other estate planning devices like life insurance.

In taking stock of your estate, consider whether you have any of the following:

- Life Insurance
- Qualified or non qualified Retirement Accounts
- Pensions
- Real Estate
- Business Assets, Income, or Liabilities
- Trademarks, Patents, Copyrights

Get Legal Help

Take the time to assess what you will leave your beneficiaries and to decide whether you need to take steps to protect the assets you will leave. An experienced estate planning attorney can help you understand all your options for asset preservation and growth. Experienced Estate Planning Attorney Linda T. Cox can discuss all your options and create a plan with you. Call Ms. Cox at Hyatt & Weber, P.A. today at 410-505-4553.