

First time charges for drug possession in Arizona

By: Jeremy Geigle, Attorney at Law
JacksonWhite, P.C.

Possession of drugs in Arizona is a serious felony offense – even if the amount is relatively small. On a first time drug offense, you would hope to receive some mercy from the court and a probation plea. However, every case is unique and must be handled and resolved based upon its unique facts. Drug possession in Arizona will likely be processed in Superior Court as a felony offense even if it is a first time offense.
