Whereas, on the twenty-first day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, I made and published my Last Will and Testament, and therein declared my intention of making a Codicil thereto : Now, in pursuance of such intention, I do hereby make, and declare, and publish this as a Codicil to my said Will. First, I give to Bridget Williams the sum of nine hundred dollars, being the balance of money left in my hands for this purpose, with which I direct my Executors to purchase an annuity payable to her during her natural life, payable quarterly. Second, I give to my two daughters, known by the names of Frances

Ann, aged about six years, now residing with Mrs. , and under the immediate care of her daughter, Mrs. ;

the other daughter, named Elizabeth, being about the age of two years, now residing with Mrs. , both well known to Henry O. Taylor all the rest, and residue of my Estate, both real and personal, and to the survivor of them their heirs and assigns forever. Nevertheless, I give to Samuel Corp two hundred dollars, being in consideration of an act of great liberality, shown towards me more than twenty years ago. I regret that it has not been in my power at an earlier date to give any evidence of my gratitude towards him. In Testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name, this eleventh day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five. A. Burr. Signed, published, and declared by the said Aaron Burr, in the presence of us, who have hereunto subscribed our names at the request of the said Aaron Burr, and in his presence, or in the presence of each other. The words " being the balance of money left in my hands for this purpose," on first page, being interlined before signing. Hy.
