1. If Defendant detained, third person's consent to search no good. State v. Coles ___ NJ ___ (2014) A-1512

If Defendant detained, third person's consent to search no good. State v. Coles ___ NJ ___ (2014) A-1512. Under the circumstances presented here, a third party's consent to conduct a warrantless search of a defendant's living space is insufficient to justify the search when the defendant is unlawfully detained by police.

2. Co-Occupant consent to search valid. State v. Lamb 217 NJ 442 (2014)

Under the circumstances of this appeal, an occupant's knowing and voluntary consent to search a premises is constitutionally effective against a third party and is not nullified by the prior objections of an absent co-occupant whose absence is not the result of a police effort to avoid an objection

3. Belmar 5 Mile Race fun teams July 12, 8:30am

Kenneth Vercammen is again putting together 5 teams of both competitive and non-competitive runners. If you can finish 5 miles in less than 1 hour, you can be on our teams of fun. Email Ken at Kenv@njlaws.com

Our winning teams in last year won free beer tickets. Individual Application online at <http://www.belmar5.com/belmar.pdf> or go to <https://runsignup.com/Register/?raceId=9379>

The name of our teams are US Olympic Development 1, RVRR Beer Mile Champs, and US Olympic Development 3 [just trying to finish] and our masters, known as "The Legends of Belmar". We will have runners from several running clubs, including RVRR, JSRC, CJRR & Sandy Hooker Tri Club and Rumson Hash.

You do not need to be a member of USATF or any club to be on a team. We would like 30 people of different abilities.

If you have or will enter the Belmar 5, email Ken V at KenV@njlaws.com

After you register Bib # will be online.
