

Immigration and Naturalization to the States - www.uscis.gov

Immigration and naturalization to the United States is a simple procedure, but one that has to be done correctly and with care. This process needs to be done with the appropriate care. For many of the DV lottery applicants, the green card lottery procedure is crammed with hope for a better life and a better future for them and their loved ones. Starting this procedure is not an easy task, the immigration and naturalization program, can give you adversity at many of the USA immigration steps. Upon submitting an application to the DV lottery or green card lottery, the immigration and naturalization process has a very scrupulous nature. The DV lottery forms need to be done very cautiously so that your submission will not make you ineligible. The fact that you only have 30 minutes to complete the whole immigration form on www.uscis.gov makes it even harder. It can be very helpful to use an immigration and naturalization service to assist in this process so one can be sure that the Green card application will not get disqualified.

The USA immigration and naturalization process is run by www.uscis.gov. They provide an important service to immigrants that want to live and work in USA, by giving priceless information regarding the immigration process. www.uscis.gov is an authorized government branch that is part of the DHS (Department of Homeland Security). Each year, many non USA residents arrive in the USA with the intent of living and working there. www.uscis.gov helps them with the process of legally working and living in the states.

Once you have got through this step, you will need to take the immigration and naturalization test (www.uscis.gov). This involves assessment of the applicants written and spoken English and knowledge testing of US history and government. Candidates of the immigration and naturalization test should expect questions of a similar nature to the ones below:

- Who was the first president of the United States?
- What are the three branches of the government?
- Can you name thirteen original states?
- Why did the pilgrims come to America?

Applicants are also expected to attend an interview in order to finalize the immigration and naturalization process and obtain US citizenship.

USAGC has been helping people enter the US green card lottery almost 10 years now. They provide an excellent immigration and naturalization service to non-US citizens and help them to streamline the bureaucracy involved, when entering the DV Lottery. For more information on your preparation for your immigration and naturalization test, please follow this link www.uscis.gov. A US green card is the most wanted status in the world, especially for those who are currently living in the states without an official visa. For more information regarding green card USA, please visit the USAGC blog and Twitter account.