

H-1B CAP HAS BEEN REACHED

By Elizabeth Coonan / coonan@brownwinick.com

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) announced on June 12, 2012, that it has received a sufficient number of H-1B Petitions to reach the statutory cap of 65,000 petitions for FY2013. June 11, 2012, was the final receipt date for new H-1B petitions requesting employment beginning in FY2013. Any petitions received after June 12, 2012 requesting employment in FY2013 will be rejected.

Elizabeth A. Coonan is a partner at the BrownWinick law firm. Elizabeth assists clients in the areas of employment, workers' compensation and business immigration law. She represents employers in various aspects of their business including workers' compensation strategy and prevention and internal policy development and enforcement. You may reach Elizabeth at 515-242-2408 or coonan@brownwinick.com.

A Firm Commitment to Business™