So say the programming people, according to TexParte. See my last two posts for more information.

That should give us plenty of time to try the system out before I speak on appellate e-filing at the 2011 State Bar of Texas Annual Meeting in San Antonio in late June. The State Bar has invited me back, this time as a presenter. It should be another great program.

Meanwhile, if you're going to be in Austin on March 31, make plans to attend the Austin Bar Association Solo/Small Firm Section's annual Half-Day CLE. I will be participating in a panel discussion entitled "Improve Your Business Model: Practice Tips for Running Your Practice More Efficiently and Profitably." More information about the program and registration information is available here.
