

D&O, Governance, Risk, Compliance and Accountant Update
News, Analysis and Resource Links
August 21, 2010

Dave Tate, Esq.
tateatty@yahoo.com; <http://davidtate.us>

Focus on Recent News Items:

1. SEC large-company enforcement actions: Dell (alleged accounting irregularities), General Electric (FCPA).
2. Most companies don't audit executive compensation, Click Here.
3. New securities litigation targeting for-profit educational companies, D&O Diary.
4. The Conference Board, The Failure Imperative, discusses systemic and cultural aversion of failure as a barrier to creating a culture of transparency and openness.
5. The Institute of Internal Auditors, What GRC Could Mean to Your Organization, Click Here (and then click on the indicated link).
6. Corporate Governance: Five "Worst Practices", Click Here.

D&O, Governance, Risk, Compliance and Accountant Update is sent only to individuals who request it. If you wish to unsubscribe please send an email to tateatty@yahoo.com and indicate unsubscribe. The materials in this Update do not provide legal, accounting or other professional advice, are not a solicitation for services, and do not apply to any particular situation, entity or person. Please also note that as used or included in this Update, links to other third party materials or sources are not an endorsement of or agreement with those materials or sources or the materials therein.