

Edge Welcomes New UK Partner Tony Bash

Tony Bash has joined Edge International as a partner based in London. He joins other Edge partners in the UK, Nick Jarret-Kerr and Chris Bull, in serving law firms in the UK, Europe and Asia.

Tony has wide experience in working with global law firms. He has worked as Finance Director with major firms in the UK and US including Weil, Gotshal & Manges, Mishcon de Reya, Linklaters, Norton Rose, and Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer. Tony's focus is helping firms with highly practical approaches to revenue management and working capital control; expenditure management and procurement; business intelligence; financial analysis and Finance / Practice Management systems.

In the current market, Tony's expertise in matter pricing (including alternative fee arrangements), financial due diligence and financial SRA compliance complement the experience of our other Partners particularly well. His work as Finance Director in leading firms also gives him practical insights into the analysis, calculation, mechanics and sensitivity of partnership compensation. Tony is a qualified accountant and holds an MBA.
