If you are a parent and your child has been charged with theft or shoplifting in Phoenix, you are probably concerned about your child's future. A shoplifting conviction can result in jail time, fines, restitution and even a criminal record for a juvenile. In addition, any type of theft conviction can have a negative impact on your child's future when they go to apply for college or a job.

If your child is under investigation for shoplifting or any other type of theft in Phoenix, an Arizona juvenile criminal defense attorney can be a great ally. With an Arizona juvenile criminal defense attorney on your side, he or she can work to negotiate a lesser penalty or may even be able to have your child's charges dismissed altogether. Any experienced juvenile criminal defense attorney understands that children sometimes make mistakes, and will work to protect your child's future.
