Capital Finance Adds Mortgage Expert

Capital Finance has augmented its expertise in mortgage banking with the addition of Stephen D. Morrison, CMB

Indian Wells, California, Tuesday, July 14, 2009: Capital Finance is pleased to announce that Stephen D. Morrison has joined our firm as an expert witness consultant specializing in mortgage related matters. Morrison brings a unique wealth and depth of experience in mortgage issues that further enhances Capital Finance's abilities on matters of extreme importance in today's economic climate. Both an attorney and a certified mortgage banker, Morrison has served for more than twenty five years in various top level positions in the mortgage industry including five years as Chairman of the Board of Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc. (MERS). He has held several top positions with Wells Fargo Home Mortgage, including thirteen years as its General Counsel and helped with the due diligence and acquisition of over $100 Billion in mortgage companies/assets. Morrison is admitted to practice law before the Supreme Court of the United States and the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals as well as in Iowa and Minnesota.

"We are extremely pleased to have someone with Stephen's rare combination of skills and experience associated with us," said Steven I. Fried, Principal of Capital Finance. "Especially during this period of turmoil between mortgage lenders and borrowers, Stephen's expertise will be invaluable in assisting our clients" Fried added. Capital Finance is a licensed and bonded litigation support and testifying expert witness firm specializing in complex banking and finance matters. Established in 1987, interested parties can obtain representative client, biographical and other information at <http://www.BankingExpertWitness.com> or by calling Steven I. Fried at (760) 776-5749.
