A Baltimore estate planning attorney says that one of the most popular reasons for establishing a Maryland living trust is to avoid probate. However, there are additional benefits to a living trust, including:

- Reduction in or elimination of estate taxes
- Flexibility, since it can be changed or cancelled at any time
- Protection for dependents with special needs
- Asset protection in case of incapacity
- Provides privacy, making it more difficult for creditors to challenge asset distribution

When you set up a Maryland living trust, you will maintain control of the trust assets, another beneficial feature of this estate planning vehicle. A living trust also enables you to plan for any potential incapacity, thus avoiding the need to establish a future guardianship.

An experienced Maryland estate planning attorney can help you understand all your options for estate planning. Experienced Estate Planning Attorneys Linda T. Cox and Seth B. Zirkle can discuss all your options and create a plan with you. Call Ms Cox or Mr. Zirkle at Hyatt & Weber, P.A. today at 410-505-4553 begin_of_the_skype_highlighting 410-505-4553 end_of_the_skype_highlighting.
