

Airline Management Newsletter

December 30, 2011

Recent NMB Results

Atlantic Southeast Airlines IAM won an election to represent Flight Attendants. Out of 2,146 eligible employees, 1,757 valid votes were cast. There were 1,065 votes for IAM, 666 votes for AFA and 26 No votes. Certification December 22, 2011.

Virgin America TWU lost an election to represent Flight Attendants. Out of 610 eligible employees, 547 valid votes were cast. There were 223 votes for TWU and 324 no votes. Dismissal December 21, 2011.

United Air Lines/Continental Airlines IFPTE lost an election to represent Engineers and Related Employees. Out of 346 eligible employees, 299 valid votes were cast. There were 136 votes for IFPTE and 163 no votes. Dismissal November 29, 2011.

Omni Air International AFA won an election to represent Flight Attendants. Out of 355 eligible employees, 284 valid votes were cast. There were 237 votes for AFA, 0 void votes and 47 no votes. Certification October 26, 2011.

NetJets Services Inc. IBT won an election to represent Flight Dispatchers. Out of 47 eligible employees, 46 valid votes were cast. There were 24 votes for IBT and 22 no votes. Certification September 21, 2011.