

Notice to U.S. Citizens Traveling to Honduras

Posted on June 29, 2009 by Robert A. Kraft

The U.S. Embassy recently issued a notice advising U.S. citizens to defer all non-essential travel to Honduras until further notice. This announcement is in response to the current unstable political and security situations. The U.S. Embassy will be open for emergency services but no visa services will be available June 29, 2009.
