A man was injured after his motorcycle was rear-ended by a vehicle at a stop sign and then crushed underneath the car, according to a news report.

Anaheim police said that the motorcyclist was stopped at the corner of Vermont and State College when a red Nissan crashed into the back of his motorcycle, causing it to rear-end a black Nissan in front of it. The red Nissan then ran over the K-9 Big Dog motorcycle. According to social media posts accompanying the story, the motorcyclist was identified as Bill Perea; his wife Veronica Perea posted that the driver of the red Nissan was distracted by her cell phone at the time of the accident.

Perea was taken to UCI Medical Center in Orange and suffered four broken ribs.
