Churchill Wisdom; On Advice

“In those days he was wiser than he is now; he used to frequently take my advice.”

-Winston Churchill

Following your attorney's advice can be one of the more difficult aspects of divorce work, but you r previously blogged on How to Hire an attorney, Keeping Quiet when necessary, Annoying Client I with the Stress of a family law matter. One important and common theme to all of these is to list advice you are given. It is no guaranty of a perfect case, but it increases the potential for a satisfac long as the person giving the advice knows what they are talking about.)

Matthew Thompson is a Family Law attorney and is good at telling people what to do.
