Top 5 Reasons to Change Your Will

1. You don't have a will. (So having one would be a change!)
2. Your marital status has changed. (Do you really still want your ex getting all your stuff?)
3. You have moved to a new state. (It's possible that not every part of your New York will would be enforceable once you get old & cranky, move to Florida, start playing golf 5 times a week and eat dinner at 4:30 p.m.)
4. Your family has grown. (I'm mainly referring to having a child, not the 25 pounds you may have packed on.)
5. You don't like your family any longer. (Unfortunately, ill will – pun intended - within families is one of the primary motivators for will changes.)
