

DUI Expungement in Arizona
By: Jeremy Geigle, Attorney at Law
JacksonWhite, P.C.

In order to remove a DUI conviction from your record in Arizona, you need to prepare and file a motion to set aside the DUI. If you were under the age of 18 at the time of the offense, you may be able to entirely expunge the DUI off of your record. An attorney can help you walk through the steps to file a motion to set aside your DUI and defend any prosecutor opposition to the motion. When filing a motion to set aside, you want to let the court know about you, your past successes and future plans. Giving the judge a reason to believe you have put this behind you and having the DUI conviction removed from your record will assist you in reaching your future goals, can go a long way to help you get the DUI removed from your record.
