

How Do I Get 100,000 Hits in 2 Weeks?

This morning on my Friday morning conference call we will learn how Kineto Pictures was able to produce this music video on a shoestring budget, and have it viewed over 100,000 times in just a couple of weeks.

The video is awesome, but the real secret behind the success? Engaging a single thought leader online in promoting the video. Her name is Michelle Phan. Hear Damian Dayton, owner of the production studio Kineto Pictures, break down what is so special about her Youtube videos, and some powerful video tips that can help you create effective videos, even if you are just shooting from your office.
