22 The Verizon defendants<sup>1/</sup> hereby join the Motion of United States for a Stay Pending
23 Disposition of Interlocutory Appeal in Hepting v. AT&T Corp., No. 06-00672 (MDL Dkt. No. 67)
24 (“Stay Motion”) filed on November 8, 2006. In particular, Verizon agrees that discovery (as well as

1 the filing of answers or resolution of any preliminary injunction motions) should be stayed pending
2 resolution of the Hepting appeal. As the Government and the Defendants have explained,<sup>2/</sup> 3 proceeding with any discovery would be at odds with the very notion of obtaining guidance from the 4 Court of Appeals at the threshold regarding the appropriate scope and application of the state secrets 5 privilege.

6 At this point, however, Verizon is not in a position to evaluate fully whether it intends to file
7 a dispositive motion as to the claims against it, because the Plaintiffs have not yet submitted their 8 master complaint against the Verizon defendants. Accordingly, Verizon expects to inform the Court
9 and the parties of its position as to dispositive motions after the Plaintiffs file their master 10 complaints.
